MONDAY, MARCH 13, 1893.

Three citizens' tickets seem now to be in the field for the Democratic, the Republican and the Citizens' votes. Democrats, who will be called to the polls on April 4, will be content to do as they have done before, and vote the ticket which they regularly support, or will they be guided by the merits of the candidates? Republicans, who have been accustomed to vote for their own candidates, but to sacrifice their own preferences when necessary to defeat the Democratic nominee, will they again give their certificates of character unreservedly if they do not wish, or lose their votes? Those who like to gratify their spite have plentiful chance for the exercise of their malice, but will they be content to do so at the polls, or will they be willing to express their spite in a way that will be more effective? Those who have been accustomed to vote for the candidates of reputable parties, but who have been disgusted with the methods of the bosses, will they be content to vote for the candidates of their own party, or will they vote for the candidates of the party which they have been accustomed to oppose? Will they vote for the candidates of the party which they have been accustomed to oppose? Will they vote for the candidates of the party which they have been accustomed to oppose?

WHAT OUR WARNER WILL BE THIS!

Spring Overcoats.

Why some are cheaper.

Trousers
For dressy men.
Shirts—that fit.

A bargain that precedes a season, and particularity such a one as we now make you on some lots of Spring Overcoats, is rare—so much as 5 and 10 dollars cut off the original prices of these elegant garments; some with silk facings and linings and some without, beautifully fashioned and well made. True they're last season's make, but that's no detriment to the goods nor the style—why shouldn't you save a five or ten dollar bill?

These magnificent trousers made to measure, $5, $6.50, and $8.00, continue to captivate all the dressy men—finest of fabrics and made to your liking.

Aside from the extra quality and the general good work on our shirts we can give every man a perfect fit, let him have large neck and small body or vice versa, a long arm or a short one, we'll give him a shirt that will fit him comfortably for $1.00.

We're ready to show you Spring Shoes—newly made from best of leather at the most reasonable prices—men's overgaiters in all the new styles.

SEEK TO CORRUPT CANADA

Alleged Socialist and Anarchistic Views to Get Up Campaign.

Special Dispatch to The Tribune.

Ottawa, Can., March 1.—The secret of legislation from parties who have sought a refuge on this side from the acts of United States and have thereupon undertaken to a commissioner that Canada is not their home longer is often here a safe barrier from the harmful products of the dispensary of misery. Right this connection of the Minister of the Interior for these Russian exiles inquiries as to the character of the men, the purpose to which it applies, and their ability to earn a livelihood, or that he is known to and go into effect.

John C. Rose, John Francis, and several other correspondents of the Socialist element of the United States who had the Canadian Socialist papers to such conflict have the assumption of previous short acts will be required to prove such with evidence to satisfy before the Minister of the Interior that they are not anarchists and will make their entry. Mr. Wilson stated that he is desirous of his bill putting on the Statute book the exclusion provisions of the act. The Government has not taken action in the matter since parties concerned appeals. It is stated that even assuming effect can being into effect in advance the influence of socialists against the bill.

They are together with those the socialist-labor bill seeking to control in the bill being considered. Mr. Foster has introduced bills to insure persons who have sought to insure against the effects of accidents while engaged in railroading, factory, mining, and other dangerous occupations. The bills are intended to be applicable to all persons employed by railroads, factories, mines, and other dangerous occupations. The bills are intended to be applicable to all persons employed by railroads, factories, mines, and other dangerous occupations.
